

Building Equity Through Allies and Leadership

Thursday,
November 9, 2017

8:30am - 3:00pm

Holiday Inn Burlington Hotel and Conference Centre

3063 South Service Road
Burlington, Ontario

- Understand the roots of oppression
- Learn how to challenge power & privilege
- Discover how to become an Active Ally

Jean Samuel has worked in the area of Diversity for over 20 years. She currently works at The Catholic Children's Aid Society of Hamilton as the Supervisor of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion where she assists in furthering the awareness of the impacts of oppression. Jean also works with leaders to assist in the development of strategic goals and initiatives, as well as policies and procedures to remove barriers to create an inclusive organization.

Darren Thomas is from the Seneca Nation and a member of the Bear Clan. Darren is a doctoral candidate and a full-time lecturer in the Indigenous Studies program at Wilfrid Laurier University. His research focuses on First Nations community development through Indigenous rights and resource governance. Darren specializes in designing and implementing programs and initiatives that inspire Indigenous youth to be proud of their heritage, and take a powerful place in modern society.

Additional information: Free Conference

- Registration required ● Register online @ www.hedroundtable.com
- Accommodations for accessibility will be made upon request
- Limited space available ● Lunch will be served

Ontario
Trillium
Foundation

Fondation
Trillium
de l'Ontario